

The Congressional Addiction, Treatment and Recovery Caucus invites you to attend a briefing on

Reducing Health Care Costs:
Chronic Disease Management for Alcohol & Drug Problems

on

June 11, 2009 from 1:00-3:00 pm
122 Cannon House Office Building

Speakers:

David L. Rosenbloom, PhD (moderator)

President and CEO, National Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse at Columbia University

Michael Dennis PhD

Senior Research Psychologist, Chestnut Health Systems, Bloomington, IL

Michael Botticelli

Director, Bureau of Substance Abuse Services, State of Massachusetts

Gale Saler

Regional Director, Gaudenzia, Inc., Baltimore, MD

Beverly Haberle

Pennsylvania Recovery Organization - Achieving Community Together, Philadelphia, PA

Learn from experts working in their communities and states about how managing addiction as a chronic condition will help control health care costs and make it possible for millions of Americans to live healthier lives, and strengthen individuals, families, communities and our nation.

RSVP: email AlexaE@thenationalcouncil.org or call 202.684.7457

Congressional Addiction, Treatment and Recovery Caucus

Co-chairs:

Representatives Patrick Kennedy (D-RI) & John Sullivan (R-OK)

Vice Co-chairs:

Representatives Mary Bono Mack (R-CA) & Carol Shea-Porter (D-NH)

SAVE THE DATE! July 21, 2009, 2-4 pm

How and Why Community-Based Prevention of Alcohol and Drug Problems Works